DIRECTIONS: There are blacktop roads that take you from I-44 to the campground. Entering Bell Cow Lake, Chandler, Oklahoma in google maps will direct you to the Bell Cow Lake equestrian camp in some map programs (but look carefully as the equestrian camp is in Area C which is on the south side of the lake off of 890 Road). Basically, if coming from the West, take I-44 East (Turner Turnpike) to exit 166 for Highway 18, Chandler & Cushing. Once through the turnpike turnstile, turn left (north) on Highway 18, drive approximately ½ mile to 890 Road and turn left (west) on 890 Road for 2.9 miles until you are forced to turn right (north) into Camp Area C (DO NOT follow the black top road that clearly turns to the right north that is at about 1.5 miles from Highway 18... look for NATRC sign and arrows). If coming from the East, take I-44 West (Turner Turnpike) to exit 166 and follow the directions above.
